

Emma Finn is Director of Marketing. Emma is a secondment to the organisation from Norfolk County Council's Economic Development Unit.

Emma has worked within the private, public and voluntary sectors securing major corporate and trust funding within a range of organisations including the British Red Cross, the Metropolitan Police Service and the communications agency, Educational Communications. This included securing £1 million from Yellow Pages for the sponsorship of Neighbourhood Watch in London.

She has lived and worked in Sydney, Australia and has enjoyed extensive travel in India, Thailand and the USA. She is married with a son.